

KARMA ROYAL JIMBARAN TRAILS

Jimbaran, once a quaint fishing and farming village, has transformed into a beloved tourist destination in southern Bali. Renowned for its pristine beaches and breathtaking sunsets, Jimbaran now hosts a plethora of seafood restaurants that were among the first to grace the region. The area's allure is complemented by a range of international standard hotels, enhancing its reputation as a coastal haven. In the mornings, the serene Jimbaran beach becomes a perfect spot for leisurely walks or runs along the beach, offering visitors the chance to soak in the scenic beauty all the way to the bustling fish market in Kedonganan.

• TREK II (NUSA DUA BALI TOURIST AREA)

📍 AROUND 6 KM

Nusa Dua, a meticulously planned tourist haven, boasts international standards with comprehensive tourism amenities. Spanning roughly 350 hectares in Bali's southern tip, it features luxurious five-star hotels, villas, and extensive facilities for meetings, conferences, and exhibitions. The area is well-equipped with hospitals, sports complexes, shopping centres, and more. Managed by the ITDC (Indonesia Tourism Development Center), formerly known as BTDC (Bali Tourism Development Center), Nusa Dua is distinguished by its iconic Balinese gateway.

The Nusa Dua complex is a picturesque landscape with well-maintained gardens and orderly pedestrian paths. The lush greenery and scenic beauty offer a refreshing and invigorating atmosphere. The environmentally friendly roads, under vigilant security supervision, affirm Nusa Dua's status as an exclusive and supremely comfortable tourist locale.

1. Start at Karma Royal Jimbaran and head to Nusa Dua (ITDC) by car, a brief 20-minute ride.
2. Hire a bicycle at ITDC for 100K, which includes a day's rental and a helmet for safety.
3. Pedal from the main entrance for 3 km, taking in Nusa Dua Beach's splendour. Pause to witness the dramatic water blow and relax at a local warung to relish a young coconut and sample regional delicacies.
4. Cycle another 3 km back to the main gate and gear up for your return to Karma Royal Jimbaran.
