OUR TOP PICKS OF RESTAURANTS IN THE REGION

Restaurant at Amankila

Amankila's ocean-view Restaurant focuses on locally sourced ingredients. Traditional local techniques are combined with contemporary cooking styles for revitalising cuisine. Ducks are raised at the resort's free-range farm in Jasri village; herbs are grown in Amankila's garden; and cold smoking is done in the smokehouse. Vegetables and exotic fruits are the result of the rich volcanic soil spread beneath Mt Agung.

Seasalt Restaurant at Alila Manggis

Restaurant at Alila Manggis

We bring you flavours that are both local and international, some inspired and others traditional, some simple and a few slightly more complicated, some meals for one and others to share, some spicy and a couple that are not too spicy. We recommend some flavours to share, our signature meal, the Traditional Balinese Megibung, which is a unique and very traditional way of sharing food with friends and family during village festivals and ceremonies in East Bali and some parts of Lombok.

Open daily from 07.00am to 11.00pm for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Tirta Gangga

White Beach

Taman Ujung

Tirta Gangga - floating palace about 45 minutes from the resort

Tirta Gangga is a former royal palace in eastern Bali, Indonesia, about 5 kilometres from Karangasem, near Abang. It is noted for its water palace, owned by Karangasem Royal.

White beach - Known as virgin beach 20 minute drive from the resort

Virgin Beach stretches for about 700 metres around an attractive turquoise cove bookended with rocky cliffs and fringed with tropical forest. Out to sea, on the southern end of the beach, Pulau Kuan sits whale-like on the horizon.

Taman Ujung - The Royal Pool - 30 minute from the resort

Ujung Water Palace is a former palace in Karangasem Regency, Bali. The palace has three large pools. In the middle of the pool, there is the main building named Gili Bale, connected to the edge of the pool by bridge.

Tenganan - Bali aga village - 10 minutes away from the resort

Tourists are attracted to Tenganan by its unique Bali Aga culture that still holds to the original traditions, ceremonies and rules of ancient Balinese, and its unique village layout and architecture. It is known for its Gamelan selunding music and geringsing double ikat textiles.

HIGHLIGHTS OF CANDIDASA

Besakih - The mother temple

Pura Besakih is a temple complex in the village of Besakih on the slopes of Mount Agung in eastern Bali, Indonesia. It is the most important, the largest and holiest temple of Hindu religion in Bali, and one of a series of Balinese temples. Perched nearly 1000 meters up the side of Gunung Agung, it is an extensive complex of 23 separate but related temples with the largest and most important being Pura Penataran Agung. The temple is built on six levels, terraced up the slope. The entrance is marked by a candi bentar (split gateway), and beyond it the Kori Agung is the gateway to the second courtyard

Puri Agung

Puri Agung

Puri Agung

Puri Agung - King palace

Puri Agung Karangasem is collectively several royal palaces of the Karangasem kingdom, which are all positioned within a 100-metre radius of the capital town of Amlapura. You can find these separate palaces in three main locations in the town hub: Puri Kaleran to the north, Puri Gede on the west, and the main Puri Agung complex. Puri Agung is the main residential palace of the late Raja of Karangasem, featuring grand structures such as the Bale Pemandesan pavilion and the Maskerdam palatial main building.
